The Human Code: How to Use It

humancode.mommaleo.com · from The Observatory by MommaLeo

One profile. Eight traditions. A place for curiosity, culture and reflection.

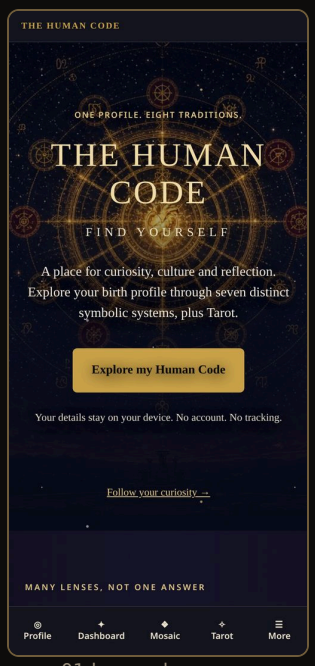

Checked on the live site on Nov 11, 2026 (about 4:10 AM ET), using made-up birth details only. Every step below was tried and seen working, unless the "Not verified" note at the end says otherwise.

Before you start: 3 things to know

1. No account. No sign-up. You just open the page.
2. Your birth details stay on your phone or computer. The site works them out right in your browser and doesn't send them anywhere.
3. This is for reflection, not prediction. These are cultural and symbolic traditions, not science. Think of each result as a question to sit with, not an answer about you.

Step 1. Open the site

- Go to humancode.mommaleo.com on your phone or computer.
- Tap Explore my Human Code.
- On a phone, the bar at the bottom reads Profile · Dashboard · Mosaic · Tarot · More. On a computer, the same links run across the top.

02-home-discover-phone.png

Step 2. Just looking? Try an example first

- On the profile page, tap Try an example · birth time known or Try an example · birth time unknown.
- The form fills in with a made-up person. (In our test it filled in "Avery Quill.")
- This is the easiest way to look around before you enter anything about yourself.

03-profile-start-phone.png

Step 3. Enter your birth details

1. Name or nickname. This is optional, and a nickname is fine. Numerology uses the letters you type.
2. Birth date.
3. Birth time. Optional. If you don't know it, tick Unknown birth time. You'll still get most results, but there won't be a rising sign.
4. Birthplace. Required. Start typing your town and pick it from the list. If there's only one match, it's picked for you.
    - 74 cities come built in. If yours isn't one of them, tick My birthplace is not in the bundled list and type the time zone yourself. For a rising sign you'll also need the latitude and longitude.
5. Remember on this device. This is off unless you tick it.
    - Off: your profile disappears when you close the tab.
    - On: it stays in this browser until you delete it. Skip this on shared devices.
6. Tap Review location & time zone →.

04-profile-filled-phone.png

Step 4. Confirm your town and time zone

- Check that the town and time zone are right. Clocks changed over the years, and that matters for some results.
- Tick I confirm this town and time zone.
- Tap Open my dashboard →.

05-confirm-phone.png

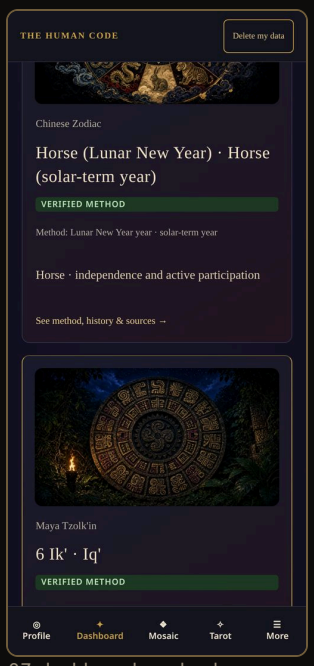

Step 5. Read your dashboard

- At the top you'll see "[Your name]'s Human Code." Below the heading, it says this is "Not a definition of you. A starting point for reflection."
- Your results in conversation lays three lenses side by side: Numerology, the Chinese zodiac and Dreamspell.
- Under that, each tradition has its own card with a short result, a badge, and the method it uses.
- Tap any card to open its full reading.

What the badges mean - Verified method: the arithmetic matches a cited, named convention. It doesn't mean the meaning is proven. - Matches the official decoder: the Dreamspell result matches the Foundation for the Law of Time's public decoder. - Correlation labelled disputed: scholars disagree on how the Mexica calendar lines up with ours. The site names the version it uses.

Step 6. Explore the 8 traditions

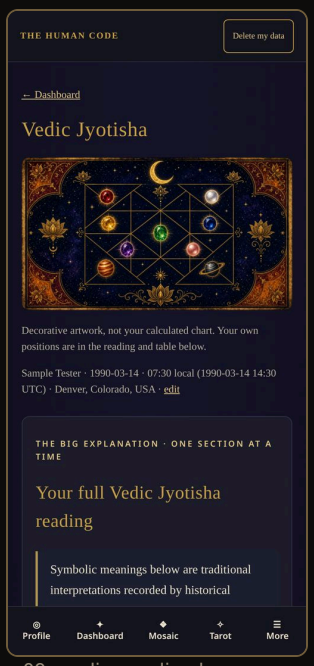

Each reading page opens with a short overview. Below that are headings you tap to open: meaning, strengths and challenges, relationships, work, history and sources.

#	Tradition	What it looks at	Sample A result*
1	Western Astrology	Sun, Moon, planets and rising sign, in the tropical (season-based) zodiac	Sun in Pisces · Moon in Libra · Aries rising
2	Vedic Jyotisha	Moon sign, nakshatra (lunar mansion) and rising sign, in the sidereal (star-based) zodiac	Moon in Tula · Chitra · Mesha rising (Aries)
3	Chinese Zodiac	Your animal year, shown by both Lunar New Year and the solar-term year	Horse · Horse (Yang Metal Horse)
4	Maya Tzolk'in	The traditional Maya 260-day count	6 Ik' (K'iche': Iq') · "wind; breath"
5	Mexica Tonalpohualli	The Aztec/Mexica 260-day "count of days"	6 Ehecatl · 6 Wind · trecena 1 Ollin
6	Numerology	Your Life Path number from your birth date	Life Path 9 · "A wider circle of concern"
7	Dreamspell (modern)	A modern 13-Moon calendar from 1987. It is not the ancient Maya count	Kin 215 · Blue Resonant Eagle
8	Historical Tarot	A random card draw that never uses your birth details	Random each time

*Sample A is a made-up person: Sample Tester, March 14, 1990, 7:30 AM, Denver. These are the results the live site gave on Nov 11, 2026.

Step 7. Draw a Tarot card

1. Tap Tarot in the bottom bar.
2. Pick a spread:
   - One card: a moment of reflection
   - Three cards: past, present, future
   - Celtic Cross: ten perspectives
3. Reversed cards are optional.
4. Tap Draw & read.

You'll get "The thread through your reading," then each card with a reflection and its historical meaning and source. Download reading text saves a plain text file. It includes no name, birthday, place or question.

If you'd rather browse than draw, Meet all 78 cards lets you read any card.

Step 8. See your Identity Mosaic (#/mosaic)

- All eight results on one screen, each in its own tile. Nothing is blended into a single score.
- Tap a tile to open that full reading.
- Make a Mosaic card: choose up to 3 highlights, choose a size, then tap Download PNG or Share on X.
- The limit is three because more results together make a birthday easier to guess.

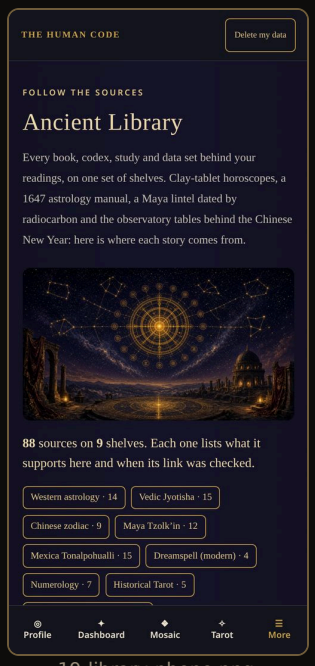

17-mosaic-phone.png

18-mosaic-share-phone.png

Step 9. Browse the Ancient Library (#/library)

- 88 sources on 9 shelves: one shelf per tradition, plus "Calculation, places & time."
- Each source says what it supports and when its link was last checked.
- Use Search the library to find a name or a book. Searching "Waite" found 3 sources.

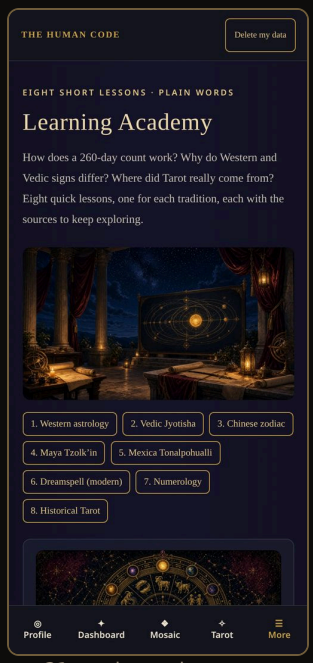

19-library-phone.png

20-library-search-phone.png

Step 10. Take a lesson in the Learning Academy (#/academy)

- 8 short lessons, one per tradition, in plain words.
- Each lesson has "How it works," "The convention this app uses" and "Where it comes from."
- At the end of each lesson you can tap See my result → or See today in this lens →.

21-academy-phone.png

Step 11. Check today's sky in the Celestial Almanac (#/almanac)

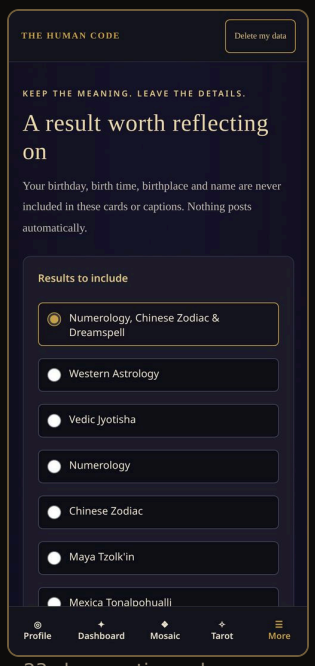

- No birth details are needed.
- It shows today through nine lenses: Sun sign, Moon sign, Moon phase, Vedic nakshatra, Chinese year, Maya day, Mexica day, Dreamspell Kin and the numerology Universal Day.
- Times are shown in your own time zone. On the East Coast that's Eastern Time.
- Use Pick any date (1901–2100) to look at another day, or tap Today to come back.

22-almanac-phone.png

Step 12. Make a share card

1. On a phone, open More → Share card. On a computer, use the Make a private share card button on the dashboard.
2. Under Results to include, keep the default (Numerology, Chinese Zodiac & Dreamspell) or pick a single tradition.
3. Choose an artwork background and a card size: Portrait post, Story or Landscape.
4. The caption is written for you, and it never includes your name, birthday, birth time or birthplace. Tap Copy caption to copy it.
5. Then:
    - Download PNG saves the picture.
    - Share on X:
        - On a phone, your share sheet opens with the picture and caption, and you choose X.
        - On a computer, the picture downloads and X opens in a new tab with your caption ready, so you attach the picture there.
    - Nothing posts until you post it.

24-share-card-preview-phone.png

31-share-maya-phone.png

Step 13. Saving the picture on an iPhone iPhones don't save pictures the way computers do, so the site gives you an easy way: - If your phone offers a share sheet, choose Save Image. - Otherwise a "Save your picture" window pops up. Press and hold the picture, then choose Save Image. Tap Close when you're done.

30-iphone-save-overlay-phone.png

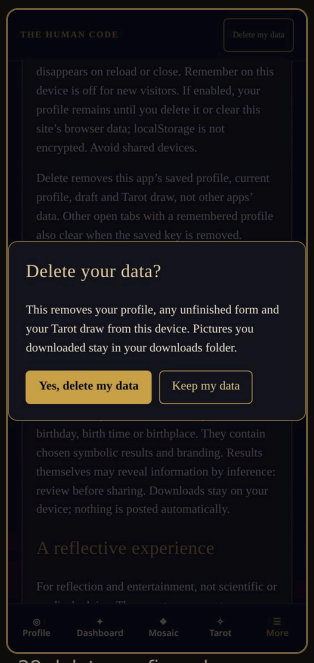

Step 14. Delete your data anytime

1. Tap Delete my data in the header, or go to More → Privacy.
2. Tap Yes, delete my data.
3. You'll see: "Done. Your data was deleted from this device."

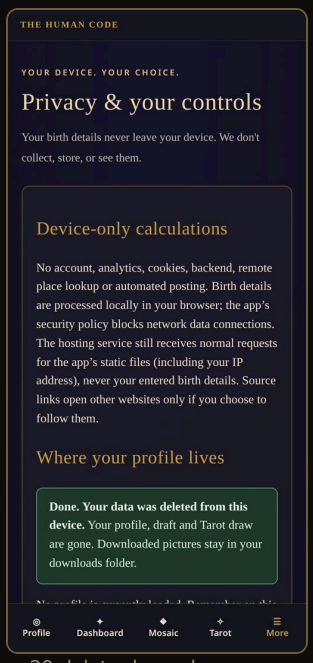

This removes your profile, any unfinished form and your Tarot draw. Pictures you already downloaded stay in your downloads folder, and you delete those yourself.

A gentle reminder

The Human Code is a mirror for curiosity. It shows how different cultures across history have read a single day. It doesn't measure your personality and it doesn't predict your future. Take what sparks a good question, and leave the rest.
